Subject: Request to Reschedule Employment Start Date

Dear Human Resources Department,

I hope this message finds you well. I am writing to formally request an adjustment to my scheduled employment start date. I am extremely grateful for the opportunity to join your organization, and I remain fully committed to contributing to the team with the highest level of professionalism and dedication.

However, due to a long-scheduled and unavoidable personal commitment, I regret to inform you that I am unable to commence my employment on the originally designated date next week. This obligation requires my full attention and cannot be altered or postponed.

With this in mind, I respectfully request that my start date be deferred by two weeks. This slight adjustment would allow me to complete my prior commitment responsibly and subsequently begin my duties with complete availability, clarity of focus, and a strong readiness to fully integrate into the company's operations and expectations.

I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience this request may cause and greatly appreciate your understanding and flexibility. Please know that my enthusiasm for joining the organization remains unchanged, and I am eager to begin contributing as soon as circumstances permit.

Should you require any additional information or documentation regarding this matter, I will be pleased to provide it promptly.

Thank you in advance for your time, consideration, and support. I look forward to your confirmation.

Sincerely,
Alfredo Valadez Reyes
